East Side Union High School District Student Receives National Recognition

Steven Hao graduated from Silver Creek High School as one of the twelve valedictorians in the class of 2005. Throughout his four years of high school he enrolled in all Advance Placement classes that the school offered. He took 14 AP exams and passed all of them with a score of a perfect 5. In addition, he took six SAT subject tests and scored a perfect 800 on all of them. He competed in the National Biology Olympiad where he won the opportunity to participate in the International Biology Olympiad in Beijing, China.

Steven was one of the four representatives for the United States. The United States won four medals—two golds and two silvers. Steven won a Silver Medal, missing the gold by a single point. Steven will be attending Yale University in the Fall. The Silver Creek High School family is truly proud of his accomplishments.

Congratulations to Steven and his parents.
