News Release

For Immediate Release: July 20, 2005

Board to Select East Side Union High School District Interim Superintendent by Mid-August 2005

The Board of Trustees will select an Interim Superintendent for the East Side Union High School District by mid-August 2005, and will accept letters of interest and resumes, until August 1, 2005, from individuals who wish to be considered for the Interim Superintendent position. The Board anticipates that the person appointed Interim Superintendent will be in that position for up to a year.

Until mid-August 2005, the Board will work closely with Chief Human Resources Officer Bob Nunez, who will have the role of Acting Superintendent to ensure that all legal powers are available to the district's administrative leadership team.

Letters of interest for the Interim Superintendent position should be addressed to Board President J. Manuel Herrera, marked confidential, and sent to the District Office, 830 N. Capitol Avenue, San Jose, 95133.
