ESUHSD holds Proposed Boundary Changes Public Hearings

Under the direction of the Board of Trustees, the East Side Union High School District administration is conducting public meetings to gather stakeholder input on the proposed student attendance boundary changes.

Several high schools throughout the district will host the meetings over the next several months so that stakeholders, including parents, students, staff and community members, will have the opportunity to offer comment, concerns and input.

Each meeting will focus on a different boundary change and its potential impact on a specific high school. Listed below are the meeting dates, times, locations and the schools affected.

For additional information on these meetings contact Mr. Jerry Kurr, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services at 408.347.5050.
