Member Frank Biehl
My understanding is that we are not making additional changes to the Board Policy, but since there is so much redline, we are giving everyone/the public the opportunity to look at it. We do that with all of our policies. Ninety-nine percent of the time nothing changes when it comes back for the next reading.

With 8.04, the Bylaws, we are asking for clarification on the section about who is on the committee, student voice task force, that makes those appointments. Counsel is going to write that up, correct?

Legal Counsel Rogelio Ruiz
Yes, and also the one minor edit to Article 3, Section 1a.

Rogelio Ruiz, Legal Counsel
With respect to 11.05 Associate Superintendent of Human Resources, the Administration recommendation is that this person, Dr. John Rubio, be placed on step 4 of the Administrator Salary Schedule, which was approved by this Board in 2016. Incremental steps are conditioned upon two successive positive, satisfactory annual evaluations. Step 4 is $204,347/annually. 11.05, 11.06 and 11.07, those contracts are standardized in terms of not only their term, which is two years each, but also in the form in content with the exception that 11.06, the contract for Mr. Jew, he is a classified employee. There are some provisions or two that deal with classified employees under the Ed Code and Mr. Vander Zee, under 11.07, has a current contract that expires in 2019. Under 11.07, the recommendation is to extend that contract for one year through 2020 to make them co-terminus with the other Associate Superintendents.
