Principal Appointment at Mt. Pleasant High School

At the East Side Union High School District Board Meeting of February 12, 2004, the Board appointed Grettel Castro-Stanley as Principal of Mt. Pleasant High School. Ms. Castro-Stanley has been the Interim Principal at Mt. Pleasant replacing Art Darin, who is now the Chief Academic Officer of the East Side Union High School District.

Ms. Castro-Stanley has over 24 years of educational and administrative experience while combining curriculum and staff development, with a strong commitment to provide continuous improvement and optimum education for all students. She has worked as Interim Principal, Associate Principal of Educational Development, AVID Program/Staff Development Coordinator, State and Federal Programs Coordinator, and Language Assessment District Coordinator/Title VII Program Manager. Grettel has been at Mt. Pleasant for the past 14 years, but has also worked at the District Office and Independence High School.

Superintendent Esperanza Zendejas, Ed.D. stated that “Grettel is well respected by her colleagues and the staff at Mt. Pleasant. I’m confident that she will make a major contribution in the continuous improvement journey to the Mt. Pleasant School and community.”
