Migrant Education Parent Meeting

TOPIC – Common Dress and Gang Awareness

On Wednesday, April 28, 2004, East Side Union High School District will hold a general Spanish parent meeting in collaboration with the Migrant Education Program from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. in the main District Office Board Room located at 830 N. Capitol Ave., San Jose, CA 95133.

“As immigrants, many families move into our San Jose neighborhoods not knowing how to prevent their sons/daughters from becoming gang affiliated or from becoming associated as a gang member. The goal is to inform monolingual parents about keeping their students safe while ensuring academic success,” said Elizabeth Ortiz, Program Recruiter for Migrant Education.

The participants are Art Darin, Chief Academic Officer; Dr. Aurora Quevedo, Director of Language Learner Programs; Juan Tovar, San Jose Police Officer; Noe Longoria, District Consultant; and Pastor Salvador Cardenas.

The topics to be discussed are gang awareness as well as the District’s common dress initiative. Confirm your attendance by contacting Elizabeth Alvarado at 408.347.5136 or via e-mail at ortize@esuhsd.org
