East Side Union High School District Hires New Chief for Human Resources

East Side Union High School District Superintendent Esperanza Zendejas, Ed.D. has filled another cabinet position with the hiring of Bob Nunez as Chief of Human Resources. “We are pleased to welcome to the ESUHSD family an individual with significant experience in the field of personnel and human resources. Mr. Nunez comes to us with strong references in his field,” stated Superintendent Esperanza Zendejas.

Mr. Nunez brings 32 years of service to education. He has worked with classified, certificated and administrative personnel. He has had great rapport with administrators, school boards, teaching and classified unions. He is currently completing his doctorate degree. He has been a past negotiator for ACSA, and was a state chair for County Superintendents in Human Resources. “Coming up North was a conscious move on my part. The San Jose area and ESUHSD offered me a great opportunity to work with a great community and school district,” said Bob Nunez.

Mr. Nunez came to us from the Riverside County Office of Education. He was an assistant superintendent in curriculum and instruction, early childhood education, and in human resources. He has been married to his wife Gayle for the past 22 years, and they have two sons Nicolas age 19 and Andrew age 20. Both sons are in college and still living at home. “After meeting with Superintendent Zendejas and the Board of Trustees, I was really thrilled to have been offered this job. I am looking forward to a great year,” stated the new Chief of Human Resources.
