

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. LIBRARY

A collaboration between the City of San José and San José State University

presents

Issues, Efforts and Dynamics

Promoting the Dream of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

featuring:

Jan 14 Ceremonial Cake Cutting
& Community Testimonials
>> King Library, 1st & 3rd Floors

Feb 5 Freedom March
>> King Library, 4th St. Lobby

Feb 8 Relevance of Dr. King's "Letter from the Birmingham Jail" to Churches
>> King Library, Rooms 255/257

Feb 15 Dr. King's Contributions to Freedom, Peace, Equality,
Education and Justice
>> King Library, Room 525

Feb 16 The Role of Students in Advancing Civil Rights
>> King Library, Room 525

See Reverse Side for More Details

Celebrating Dr. King's Legacy 2011

www. SJPL.org/MLKcelebration

January 7 - February 22, 2011

Sponsored by

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Legacy Committee
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library

Co-Sponsored by

SJSU African American Faculty and Staff Association
African American Heritage House
Fairmont Hotel, SJ
Community Arts and History Support
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library Cultural Heritage Advisory Board
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Association
Goffland
House of Sankofa
Jaliya, Inc
San Jose Peace & Justice Center
Santa Clara County Office of Human Relations
Silicon Valley Arts Council
Santa Clara Valley Chapter - African American Employees of Intel Corporation

To request an accommodation for Library-sponsored meetings or events, please call 408-808-2397 or 408-808-2130 (TTY) at least three business days in advance.

Dr. King's Legacy 2011

*Issues, Efforts and Dynamics –
Promoting the Dream of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.*

Jan. 9 (2-4 p.m.) – Films about Dr. King's Legacy – Several films will be shown depicting the dynamics and events of the Dr. King era. MLK Library, Rm 525

Jan. 14 (Noon-2 p.m.) – Dr. King's Birthday Celebration – Enjoy a birthday cake celebration, a traditional African drumming ceremony, and community testimonials. MLK Library, 1st & 3rd Floors

Jan. 14 (4-5:30 p.m.) – Arts and Crafts: Jeli-Tyme Doll Making – Join Jaliya and friends as they teach children to make their own dolls. Ages 5 and up. MLK Library, Exploration Room

Feb. 5 (Noon-2 p.m.) – Freedom March – Participants are encouraged to march while holding a poster/banner representing: Freedom/Liberty, Equality, Justice, Cultural/Ethnic Diversity and Competence, Economical Development and other MLK principles. Meet at MLK Library, March will take place throughout SJSU

Feb. 5 (2-4 p.m.) – Liberation Theology: Critical Need to Revitalize the Black Church – A panel will present information regarding the black church during the civil rights movement in comparison with its present status and where it needs to be to reflect the dream of Dr. King. MLK Library, Rm 255/257

Feb. 8 (7-9 p.m.) – Relevance of Dr. King's "Letter from the Birmingham Jail" to Churches – A panel will provide extensive dialog regarding the interpretation of Dr. King's message in his letter to churches regarding empowering congregations to seek justice while on earth. MLK Library, Rm 525

Feb. 15 (7-9 p.m.) – Dr. King's Contributions to Freedom, Peace, Equality, Education and Justice – A panel presentation discussing Dr. King's contributions and influence to the following areas: freedom, peace, equality, education and justice. MLK Library, Rm 525

Feb. 16 (7-9 p.m.) – The Role of Students in Advancing Civil Rights – A panel of students recollects the role of students during the civil rights movement. MLK Library, Rm 525

Feb. 23 (7-9 p.m.) – Dr. King's Views on Violence, Non-violence and Racism – The presentation will provide an assessment of Dr. King's perspectives regarding violence, nonviolence and racism. MLK Library, Rm 525

March 2011 – Dr. King and Cesar Chavez: A Common Legacy - Date to be Announced